The villa is decorated in an eclectic mix of crisp white fabrics, Indonesian artifacts, striking modern art and natural stone. Secluded and private, the house provides the perfect base from which to relax and absorb the unique energy of the island.

Inside, the house consists of a large open plan living room with a luxurious sunken seating area, leading onto a large dining room, modern kitchen and television room. There are four large bedrooms all with en suite. The entire property is protected by a state-of-the-art alarm system. Outside, the house sits nestled in amongst lush, green gardens and palms.
